We have been meaning to try this place for a while and finally got there. The carpark was gravel but we managed to squeeze our motorbikes into a tarmac spot. The staff were all very young (it was a Sunday) but lovely and friendly and efficient. The coffee came quickly and was good) and the breakfasts not far behind, and they were pretty busy. The food was lovely, quality ingredients and well cooked my husband was in r... read more. The

We've been to the farm shop for food several times and sadly it's gone downhill drastically since our last visit.

The food was disappointing and there was very few options for lunch. The lady behind the counter was dismissive and rude, she didn't even wipe down our table. The toilets were disgusting and need a good clean. My partner ordered a honey and almond roasted Camembert which didn't come with honey or almonds.... read more.
