What User likes about Square Kebab: Doesn't expect much, but it was pleasantly regretful. Other places often have too rural and dry pita, but the ptas here are quite juicy and tasteful. Kebab Calzone is another dish that I was quite surprised with. I didn't like kebab. But of course the situation is great. It's right in the middle of town, just under the Freedom Square. read more. As a customer, you can use the WLAN of the place free of charge, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What I V doesn't like about Square Kebab: Ok, the taste is good, but the amount of meat in the dish is ridiculous. I have ordered chicken with parmesan and the layer of parmesan was thicker, than the layer of meat, it was like.. 3 mm? and 3 leaves of salad, really? Kebab calzone was good, but not enough meat again. I do not usually eat a lot of meat, but it was not enough for me. My neighbour 's Kebab with fries was also with meat hard to find . Service: Din... read more. At Square Kebab, you'll find not only the traditional Kebabs done in various, distinct styles, but also the spices well-known for Turkish cuisine - whether on a fine Lahmacun, or in Sucuk or even in one of the various lentil or bulgur salads, The guests also rave about the fine, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the intense combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the top-picks from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East. In addition, they provide you fine seafood meals, the place serves however also menus typical for Europe.
