I haven't visited tankerton for more than 25 years, but my partner and I were randomly in the opposite and immersed at lunch on the New Year's Day without reservation and, although all the tables were reserved, the staff kindly found us a table that was available for an hour and allowed us to dinat. I'm so glad they made it! we shared a couple of baby squids to then on muscles (the one sauce to die and share a lot f... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also eat outside. What coughandcath doesn't like about The Royal:

Visited over the weekend with friends and a couple of dogs . Whilst professing to be dog friendly the male duty manager made it very clear that they didn't really like them !! read more. At The Royal in Canterbury you can savor delicious vegetarian menus, that are free from any animal meat or fish, The barbecued food is freshly cooked here on an open flame. Watching various sports events and competitions is also one of the pluses of visiting this sports bar, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and comprehensive diversity of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
