On this website, you can find the complete menu of Light Of Asia from Redcar and Cleveland. Currently, there are 15 dishes and drinks up for grabs. At this Indian restaurant, diners experience a warm and friendly atmosphere, with attentive service that garners praise. While many dishes receive high marks for flavor and generous portions, concerns arise over inconsistency; reports highlight that some meals fall short, with complaints about tastelessness and tough meat. The delay in food service is notable, with some guests experiencing long waits between courses. Despite these hiccups, many patrons cherish the exceptional quality of food when it arrives, especially the standout naan and various curry options. Overall, it remains a popular spot, albeit with room for improvement in both food consistency and service efficiency.
