What User likes about The Shire Oak: Greeted by friendly staff and shown straight to our table. The food was plentiful and very tasty although a sauce was not available for my wife's meal and the replacement garlic mushroom one was not very nice. That said the landlord was very understanding and apologetic and even gave my wife a glass of wine to compensate. We intend to go back very soon. read more. What sportybirmingham doesn't like about The Shire Oak:

Still only the same three bog standard real ales, still also never kept well, they are just about drinkable but certainly nowhere near as good as they should be. Entrance through the front of the pub. Exit through the side door into the beer garden then out that way. Fairly busy inside. Sports shown on TV. Smaller rear car park left, still an ok size, as what was the front car park has being sold to make two houses o... read more.
