My husband and I called in today for soup and tea. We were served quickly in the restaurant. There was no-one else there at the time. We ordered soup and tea. The soup was piping hot and very tasty, although it was served in quite a small bowl. I would have appreciated a bigger serving as we were not ordering anything else. Two soups and tea for two came to over ten pounds, which I thought was a bit expensive. read more. When the weather is good you can also be served outside, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Beehiverocks doesn't like about McLaughlin's Corner:

We ate here as the place we had intended to eat at was closed. There was a specials menu ranging from expensive roast dinners to cajun wraps. Nothing suitable for vegetarians. I asked if they had anything veggie and was met with a blank stare. I opted for a scone (a whole scone for lunch) which was rock hard. The server swapped it for another one, which was less hard as it had been semi heated. The other diners had p... read more. McLaughlin's Corner from Coleraine is a suitable bar to a cocktail after work, and hang out with friends, Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially large diversity of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try. Furthermore, there are many typically British meals on the menu that make the English heart beat faster, In the morning they serve a varied breakfast here.
