We came here to collect our takeaway while we were staying in a nearby b&b and I have to say the building was beautiful and the staff were so friendly. The gentleman behind the bar was very friendly and when our food came it was the best Indian meal I have ever eaten. We had balti chicken shashlick, masala sauce and all the extras and sides and I would absolutely eat here again. read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Thomas Graham doesn't like about Barn India:

The food has always been good or very good, but do not expect a luxury dining environment the building and dining room are becoming damp and a bit smelly, the lavatories are well below standard small touches with regard to interior decor, or lack of, would make a huge difference-not a place you would wish to linger over good food read more. The customers love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Barn India from NEWCASTLE-UNDER-LYME, with its creative Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of familiar meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, The visitors of the establishment also appreciate the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. Of course, the right drink to accompany a meal is a must; for this purpose, this gastropub offers you a comprehensive variety of fine, regional alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
