On the quayside in Plymouth harbour Walk down a ramp and there are three businesses Bertie's for ice cream, Gertie's for snacks, and a seafood place which I didn't really notice, although normally I'm all for seafood places We wanted ice cream so we sat outside. It looked to be closed until the bloke from Gertie's opened it up and served us. He then dashed back to Gertie's and served customers there. I suppose his co... read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What Lostpassport doesn't like about Bertie's Ice Cream Homemade Desserts:

Stopped here for an ice cream and a drink, a saturday lunchtime, weather fair and plenty of tourists around, yet for some unknown reason, there was just two staff trying to manage two outlets, make the food, take orders, be a waiter, it was simply a crazy situation. A simple order of an ice cream and a can of coke could not be fulfilled and thus after a period of waiting, we moved on. I'm not blaming the two lads tha... read more.
