Stumbled upon this beautiful cafe purely by accident while looking at the hotel next door and so glad we did. Inside is like a storage room of old and interesting items with some new items available to purchase including doggy treats. We each ordered our food and the smoked bacon bap I had was absolutely delicious as was the tea. Highly recommend this place read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What thevegannutter doesn't like about Gorleston Doggy Diner:

Nice looking place, welcoming and mega bonus points that it's dog friendly (our dog had a great time and the owners were kind enough to give her a bit of ham). However our experience was a lot more mediocre. Everything was cooked in the microwave so was edible but nothing to scream about. Just mediocre, I could have made better at home which is not what you're after when you're on holiday. The coffee was weak as well... read more.
