The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Rand0mPunter doesn't like about The Plough:

Stayed in room 4 above the bar. Food was great for whole stay, service good and the room was spacious and clean. Plenty of room for our dog and they provided a wee jar of biscuits for her. The main problem is that room 4 is over the bar so when the music was cranked until near 1am on Saturday and the locals are having fun and shouting away, there's no chance of sleep. read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Plough in Scottish Borders traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, here they serve a diverse brunch in the morning. There's also tasty pizza, baked fresh using traditional methods, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
