The restaurant is probably one of the most picturesque we've visited. The view across the bay whilst eating is stunning. The food was very good. Each course was well presented and delicious. The wine pairing was nice, and thur choices good, there just wasn't enough of it. I doubt if you even get a full bottle. The service from the staff was very good. Particularly the gentleman in the checked suit. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Eileen Harrison doesn't like about Coast Saundersfoot:

Four of us visited Coast for lunch last week and were disappointed with the food in general. The starter of chicken terrine was so so. The fish main was slightly better , however the portion was small and would have benefited from some carbs instead...of a few grains of puffed rice. The highlight of the meal was the dandelion dessert. The cheese dessert portion however was abysmal compared to the detail and work put... read more.
