We came here for lunch. We sat on a nice table in the window overlooking the harbour. We both had a sandwich. I asked for no side salad so they gave me some crisps instead which was kind. Food was nice reasonably priced. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What holidaymanWashington doesn't like about The Harbourside Cafe:

Part of the Aquarium complex, the café, as its name suggests, has great views of the harbour. The tide was out when we visited and the handful of fishing boats were sat on the mud. We enjoyed a nice cheese scone each but our Cappuccinos were thin and water and devoid of any substance. The chairs were like those in a school classroom. There is plenty to choose from but some of the prices appear to be a bit steep. Oth... read more.
