Stopped at Projects today for a coffee and cake after visiting the Winchester Christmas market. It was less hectic than other cafes and restaurants we'd seen as it was a little further away from the hustle and bustle of the market area. We really loved the delicious brownies and enjoyed perusing the eco-friendly shop area afterwards. A lovely little find. read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served.

What Martin Powell doesn't like about 4th Street Kitchen Projects:

I came here a lot in 2019 and it was fab big big big great vegan breakfast and good quality, they change the menu early 2020 and its not was the same since, portion size is tiny, so I stop going when your pay £8-12 you expect to feel full.
