I ordered a chicken curry with rice and some samosas and onion bhajis. The curry was really good, spice on point. The other food was ok, could be a bit better. The prices are really good, you'd expect small portions for the low prices they charge but in fact, the portions were as large as any other usual Indian takeaway. The biggest problem with this establishment was the waiting times. I went to the takeaway, ordere... read more.
