Dog friendly is fine but to the point where humans come second. A pub full of dogs, some quite large and intimidating (and a bit smelly) food was great but put off a bit by dogs yapping at each other with owners and proprietors alike seemingly oblivious. Whilst clearly not allowed in the kitchen some did jump up at the bar and table so hygiene must be an issue. Like I say, food was great, and good beer too. If big lo... read more.
