After 18 hrs travelling from home in SA, we met up with a UK friend at The Barge and Quarterdeck. What a special place and special people. Although I don 't think they typically do bookings, they accommodated us after a call to mention our circumstances (a tired 87 year old in tow that we couldnt drag place to place after that 'commute ' , and when we got unavoidably delayed were lovely about it. Gary a genuinely eng... read more. You can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Agnieszka Kania doesn't like about The Barge And Quarterdeck:

Very very disappointed, I did expect fire bake pizza, pizza which I received was pale colour, did not look like came out from fire place, tasted like the cheapest pizza from supermarkets, do not recommend this place for food, we went there to celebrate my husband birthday but it was the worst choice which we could take, never be back again for food. Service: Dine in read more. The Barge And Quarterdeck from Stratford-upon-Avon is a relaxed café, where you can have a small snack or cake with a warm coffee or a hot chocolate, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the crispy and crunchy pizza, baked straight out of the oven in an original manner. Even if you're only a bit hungry, you can still treat yourself to one of the fine sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, Generally, the dishes are prepared in the shortest time and fresh for you.
