In all honesty, we haven't actually eaten here (yet! but wanted to leave a review based on our experience tonight. We walked past this evening with our two children whilst trick or treating. A kind woman (sorry, didn't catch any names! beckoned us in from the window and gave our children lollipops and sweets. They were incredibly sweet, interacted with them both and seemed genuinely kind and generous. The atmosphere... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. A visit to The Shiish is particularly valuable due to the extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, and you may look forward to the fine traditional seafood cuisine. In addition, you can spoil your taste buds with various delectable Turkish menus such as chicken kebab or a spicy lentil or bulgur salad.
