If you appreciate the quality of ingredients and the care that goes into every dish and top quality service, then you have to try this family-run restaurant. With every bite, you can taste the craftsmanship and experience Pier and his family have in Italian cuisine. Without doubt, the best Italian on the Wirral. read more. What Donnell Huel doesn't like about Da Piero:

Very disappointing. I recently visited with my husband after hearing it was going to be in the Good Food Guide for next year. God only knows why! Very expensive and very small. The food was nice, but far too expensive for what it was. We felt like we were having our dinner on the table next to us. Rather disappointing. read more. At Da Piero from WIRRAL, you can taste delicious vegetarian courses, in which no animal meat or fish was used, and you may look forward to the fine classic seafood cuisine. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you will find classic Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
