Slightly updated recently in a good way. You can now feed the fish as there is an indoor pond. There is a wider variety of fish to have a look at now. Pretty much everything else is the same. There are public restrooms including disabled facilities. You can get a bite to eat here and a beverage. There's also ample parking and very accessible entrance and exit. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Seasons Garden Centre:

We visited the cafe today 14 04 24 for lunch to find no paninis or baguettes available, only breakfasts, jacket potatoes, main meals or desserts none of which we wanted. Last week there were no jacket potatoes available when we went. The cafe seemed to pick up a little after going down hill but recently it's not been as good and consequently has put us off visiting it again! read more. A visit to Seasons Garden Centre becomes even more rewarding due to the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, here they serve a comprehensive brunch in the morning. Moreover, there are a wealth of classically British meals on the list that will evoke nostalgic feelings in every Brit abroad.
