I've been here many times on the motorbike and in the car with family. I really enjoy the scenery and it's always a nice atmosphere especially when the sun is shining. The food, coffee and cake I've had there has always been nice. I'll be up for a visit again soon and I'm hoping they are still serving the ploughman's lunch. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What CockneyBrum doesn't like about Tintern Old Station:

We just wanted to stop and have a decent coffee on our way to Tintern Abbey. This is certainly a lovely place to visit if you're into old stations like us, but there is a silly £2 parking charge, which applies even if you want to just stop at the café. We nearly didn't bother to be honest, but decided to stay as we needed to stretch our legs. The station staff were friendly and the coffee was excellent. The views are... read more.
