What anonymous likes about London Carriage Works: We didn't get a great table even though it wasn't busy (we were round the corner by the serving station) but I have been before and sat in the main bit by the windows, which has a great atmosphere. The food was very good especially an amazing trifle for dessert. read more. You can use the WLAN of the restaurant at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather are right, you can also be served outside. What OpenTable Diner doesn't like about London Carriage Works:

Service was rather slow with long waits between courses. Food was generally good but there was too much vinegar in the soup for my taste. It would have been better if oil and vinegar were supplied separately so one could add them as required. read more. London Carriage Works from Liverpool is a good place for a bar to have a beer after work and be able to sit with friends or alone, the place offers however also meals typical for Europe. You can just get one of the tasty sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, if you're not that ravenous, there are also fine vegetarian dishes on the menu.
