What Katie Mason likes about The Village Tea Rooms: doesn't look like much from the outside, but I'm so glad we went in. many crafts and kinks to see. the personal was really nice and friendly. eating was amazing. inside it is huge with a secret garden in the back, so it did not feel excessively busy. I would recommend it again and recommend to anyone who crosses the headcorn stop here for lunch. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served.

What Treats999 doesn't like about The Village Tea Rooms:

Nice central location but closes early and it's pretty obvious the staff is ready to close. Their conversation was also quite loud and not for public consumption. Just an unprofessional vibe really. The ambience is quite dark and tired. read more. A visit to The Village Tea Rooms is particularly valuable due to the large selection of coffee and tea specialties, The delicious sandwiches, small salads and other snacks are also suitable for a snack. Also, there are many timeless British dishes in the card that will satisfy any lover of British cuisine, In addition, you'll find sweet delicacies, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here.
