What User doesn't like about Trattoria Guidi: If you have seen the film 127 hours and want to experience it yourself, come to this restaurant. Despite it being bookings only, it took 40 minutes for our order to be taken which we eventually had to go up to the till to request. I understand that covid precautions may take longer but staff were chatting and standing about idly and seemed to be avoiding eye contact walking past. A shame because the food was good but...
