Stopped here for a welcome drink and slice of cake before arriving in Pickering. Made to feel welcome from the start, and once settled at a table, ordered at the counter...mocha for me, tea for the OT and a slice of lemon cake and brownie....Lovely tea room with lots of history dismayed on the walls. And free parking outside...although in summer this might be full quickly. read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also be served outside, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Alexander Mason doesn't like about Balderson's Welcome Cafe:

Enjoyed our meal but discovered that you couldn't exit from the front door. As a disabled person this meant going up and down three set of steps to enable you to exit next door through the gift shop. I did ask if under the circumstances...I could go out the front door but was met with a cold ...No. On complaining the following day I was told that those were the rules and that if I didn't like it then not to go back....
