We came to Herne Hill rather by accident, but in need of some pub grub. The Prince Regent has a great reputation, or at least did, but on this occasion failed to impress greatly. Whilst a nice atmosphere and decent burger, the service was poor had to ask for menus and bill leaving our dirty plates on our uncleared table. A previous visit bumps the score up to a but could do better. Sarah M read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Prince Regent in Lambeth traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. If you decide to come for breakfast, a versatile brunch is ready for you, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and comprehensive variety of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
