We dropped in for a lunch date. The decor is very fun with colourful tea pots hanging from string. My partner loved the adjoining book shop, with its hidden gems and some first editions. The food was tasty and filling, and the cakes were amazing....My lemon and earl grey cake was zesty and light, while my partner's caramel one was warm and sweet. It was the perfect little lunch spot hidden away. read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area.
