What User likes about Sebby's Headingley: more beautiful place tend to do, but eating is delicious, the people who work there are kind, and it is a nice place to get brunch. the breakfast burrito is excellent. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What annamX5355SD doesn't like about Sebby's Headingley: Ordered an oat latte only to be served one with cow 's milk (which I was unfortunately only able to confirm after a few confusing mouthfuls). The waitress did apologise but having been vegan for over 20 years the that was my bad didn 't really cut it. Was then charged £3.50 for two slices of plain toast. The staff are friendly enough but the service and light flickering need a good talking to. read more.
