We are regular Harvester goers but normally go to The Fox Hunt in Halesowen. Tried the kingswinford for a change . Firstly asked for drinks and just supplied us the glasses to get our own which we normally have bought over to us then refill ourselves read more. You can use the WLAN of the restaurant at no extra cost, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather are right, you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about Harvester:

Service was very slow. We brought our 9 year old granddaughters. The interminable wait between courses made them fractious, and took them past their bedtime. This pub does not sell proper beer only keg style American/continental beers. What's wrong with traditional English beer? They didn't... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Harvester in Dudley traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a delicious Trifle, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. If you decide to come for breakfast, a versatile brunch is ready for you.
