I've been coming here since I was 17, (many, many years ago) and it hasn't changed one bit. The setting is unique on the marshes, bursting with sea birds and facing the Welsh hills it's glorious. The pub's interior probably hasn't changed since the 18th century no TV, no loud music, just a great clientele and a lovely pub "buzz" It's a smashing place and an absolute one off. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather. What tortoiselife doesn't like about Harp Inn:

I think for the locals this would be a great place to meet and sup. For non-locals it is a small pub in an unusual location, an interesting experience, with homely food. read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious meals from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good diversity of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Furthermore, there are many typically British menus on the menu that make the English heart beat faster.
