Self trained chef Paul knows how to serve great food. This is not a haute dining restaurant it serves modern wholesome food in good portions, if you want foam dots and a dish looking like a Joan Miro don't go. But if you want fresh modern English food it is one of the best. Wine prices are reasonable, they have live music sometimes in the marquee. It is top of my list in the south Oxfordshire area. then I went for one of the best starters I've ever had, the Charcuterie Board. now they are ready for the huge list of meat that was on the board beech smoked air dried ham, goose salami, smoked duck, air dried pork cheek, creamy farm beef bresaola, confit pork terrine, cheese truffle honey, olive oil, salsa verde, garlic, cornichons and toast. I mean seriously, that's a serious teller of eating. salami. pork cheek.... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Crooked Billet in South Oxfordshire traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle. You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Also, they proffer you flavorful seafood menus, here they serve a diverse brunch in the morning.
