Popped in with friends for afternoon refreshments, the cakes were varied and all great quality. The overall ambience was relaxed and we chilled out for a while. No pressure to leave despite the cafe closing time approaching. read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What Cecile P doesn't like about Dexter's:

We went to pick up what we thought would be a surprise treat, bought with the too good to go app: what a disappointment to see that we were given 2 doughnuts £3 with the offer: I wonder how much they are full price?! . As we were waiting we could see a fly going from cakes to cakes, which were not covered on top of a counter, right at people's face level to be sneezed caught at!...once home we unwrapped the very...
