My friends and I look forward to our Walk for Health Ramble around Lloyd Park every Monday and then a Tram ride to Croydon and the ClockTower Cafe. We have been using the Cafe for many years now and it is one of the nicest places in dreary old Croydon. The Staff, although always very busy always have time for a chat and are always smiling and friendly. There is usually between five and seven of us and they have never... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What J316LBraymonds doesn't like about Clock Tower Cafe:

Nice clean venue, not much variation on a cooked breakfast, chose the full breakfast minus chips and beans, was offered alternatives and opted for hash browns. With tea and coffee bill came to £22.50. Breakfast arrived minus the sausage, when I told the waitress she said she would get them but would be a couple of minutes. I said the breakfast will be cold so she said stated to eat the breakfast and she will bring the... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: Clock Tower Cafe in Croydon traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, In the morning they serve a varied breakfast here. We offer not only sweet pieces, cakes and small snacks, but also cold and hot drinks, tasty vegetarian meals are also on the menu available.
