This is a very well kept place: professional and friendly. David couldn't do enough to make us feel at home. It is set back but on the main road so there is traffic noise but ear plugs are supplied for those who need them. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather, and there is free WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Abigail Morgan doesn't like about Crossways:

looks good on paper, but is decided in the necessity of renovation. the rooms are very dated, the matratze very old and the bathroom in serious necessity to replace (stains and pickled seals everywhere). the host are nice enough, but it is very overpriced for. what is offered. I would like to pay per night, but absolutely no more. in the rooms there are earplugs. there is no double glazing and the sharpening windows... read more. At Crossways in Wealden, you get a abundant brunch for breakfast and you can eat as much as you want indulge, there are also delectable vegetarian menus in the menu. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The visitors of the restaurant are also thrilled with the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
