I feel the need to write this review after three bad takeaways on the bounce. We have given the new owners three chances, thinking every time we would give them the benefit of the doubt, but it's seriously gone down hill. The first time we had it the chicken chow mien didn't taste like chicken. So next time I thought I would have beef and that was just fatty and chewy, basically inedible. The chips were also stone co... read more.
