Had a fantastic breakfast this morning. My toddler loved her sausages and my husband was impressed with the quantity especially the baked beans. Definitely be going again. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What Mike S doesn't like about The Village Cafe:

I had seen the glowing reviews for this cafe and popped in for breakfast. The breakfasts are firmly set. As I don't drink tea or coffee I asked for an alternative. Nothing available, apart from, presumably, tap. Neither could I opt out of disliked food which would go to waste. So I went for a panini and a separate drink. More expensive than the breakfast, but okay. Not a good experience. Most cafes are happy to mix a... read more.
