We had a late Sunday lunch and the food was well below what was expected for the price of £17+ each. Two thin slices of dry turkey, overcooked very soft veg. The roast potatoes were so dry I couldn't cut them, they were so tough, the meal was barely warm. I wanted to give feed back to a server or someone from front of house but there was literally no one in sight when we left, either at the bar or at the greeting poi... read more.
