We have visited here many times before. Booked to try their Sunday roast Menu for the first time. We weren't disappointed! It was delicious! I ordered the slow braised Lamb Henry and my Husband had the Sirloin of beef, my lamb was so tender, it came with mash, roasties, veg and sticky red cabbage (my fav) we also ordered a side of cauliflower cheese which was so tasty! Portions were so generous and the gravy was lo... read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also have something outside, and there is no-charge WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Venture40218873680 doesn't like about The Queens Head:

I may be a bit late to the party but the refurb is fantastic. I realise it's the silly season of Xmas with lots of work parties so it's busy but at those prices the food was average. Both the pheasant main and the pudding treacle tart can be described as 'tough' as if they'd been hanging around a while ready to get warmed up in the microwave for speed as it was so busy, disappointing.
