Popped in for a sandwich, was pleasantly surprised, food lovely but far too much (if that can be a complaint) home cooked chips and a fresh salad on the side, along with a hot beef sandwich on lovely brown, uncut bread.

Perfect. read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the place free of charge, and into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather conditions are right, you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Hare Hounds:

Really disappointed tonight normally love it here. Private party in progress, waited ages for a table we had gone to eat, told to order before 7 and when we went to order after having a couple of drinks, told sorry no food private party, too late to go elsewhere. Not impressed read more. Hare Hounds from Wakefield is a good place for a bar to have a beer after work and be able to hang out with friends. Furthermore, the drinks list in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive assortment of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. Moreover, there are numerous typically British meals on the card that are guaranteed to excite every Englishman's taste buds, and you can look forward to the fine traditional seafood cuisine.
