We had dinner at The Bedingfeld Arms four evenings in a row as we were staying in a cottage nearby. We have visited several times over the last three years. It is a lovely country pub. The food has always been good but it is even better now; apparently there is a new chef. Service is very good when Andrew is there (but it felt slightly disorganised and less relaxed when he wasn't around). Giving five stars. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What

Tracey L doesn't like about Bedingfeld Arms:

After having many delicious Sunday lunches here this was so disappointing. No side vegetables which usually consist of red cabbage creamed leeks or cauliflower cheese. Veg consisted of one carrot, one parsnip and small portion of green cabbage and peas. No tasty gravy, very bland. No mashed potato either. I was told there was a new chef. I have emailed with my thoughts but no reply. read more.
