Lovely place. Very warm welcome. Dog friendly if that suits you. Sunday roast decent quality albeit a bit too much. Quite an expensive place but nice for a change read more. When the weather is good you can also be served outside, and there is no-charge WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Mcreview doesn't like about The Fox Grapes:

Staff lovely. Food awful, couldn't eat it. The staff were really friendly and helpful. This pub looks great for just drinks and a nice ambience but there are much better places to eat. The food was overcooked, lots of it deep fried. The chunky chips were dry and tasteless read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Fox Grapes in Leeds traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
