Having eaten a mediocre main course in a nearby restaurant we chose to walk here for dessert and were pleased we did. It was very quiet in the restaurant when we arrived although there was a queue for the takeaway ice cream. We were promptly shown to a table and weren't quite ready when they initially came to take our order due to the amazing range of options. The service was very good and it was interesting to be ab... When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also be served outside, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. WiFi is available free of charge. What Laura J doesn't like about Creams Cafe:

Horrendous place. If you have any teenage children, starting to get their freedom and venturing out with their friends with respectable parents who have been brought up to clear their own mess, whom may accidentally break a milkshake glass..and get stereotypically blamed for doing it on purpose and charged a fiver for said accident when already spending a good amount on a bill then avoid at all costs.
