What User likes about The Carpenters Arms: beautiful pub for a great Sunday dinner (x2 fry beef dinner and chicken bacon pipe with amazing desserts and a few pints. beautiful atmosphere, not too busy and great music read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Lindsay E doesn't like about The Carpenters Arms: I'm glad my impression is poorer than seems typical because initially I was really hopeful. Just an off night? If my vegetarian cassoulet was much more than tinned chickpeas in tinned chopped tomatoes, well, that's what it seemed. It was under-seasoned as was the huge (excessively so) hummus starter. Staff were pleasant but poorly trained. read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Carpenters Arms in Central Bedfordshire traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, there are also tasty vegetarian menus in the menu. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and comprehensive selection of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
