I went to Wing-Hack for the first time today, and I have to say I was impressed. I had the garlic and parmesan wing and they were juicy, crispy and full of taste, they would have done with a hauch more garlic, but that is just personal preference. service was friendly if not a little hectic, which obviously goes with opening a new venture and everyone learns how to go. Yes, they have to wait 10-15 minutes for their o... read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What tripleplay97 doesn't like about Wing Shack:

A decent amount of food for the price, and the fries were done how I like them. The wings were fine, though the hottest sauce is English hot rather than actually hot (and a also bit sweet, which was surprising). May be a good idea to order before you get there to save waiting.
