We had a lovely lunch here, plenty of parking outside, toilets were clean, as was our table. The lady serving us was great and the food was good. Nice place to stop for lunch, I'd definitely recommend. Thank you read more.

The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WiFi is available free of charge.

What zostar doesn't like about The Woll:

Difficult to find somewhere to get lunchtime food and drink early in the week in this area so found ourselves at this golf club. If you go be careful because drivers appear to speed along this narrow road, which had me worried as there was a lady with her children in a pushchair walking along at the time. Anyway back to our visit.

Everywhere I've been this week has given a very friendly welcome. This is a large but p... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Woll in Scottish Borders traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, In the morning a delicious brunch is offered here.
