Parrotstontour likes about Gbk:

We visited here today and had the special price burger and fries for £7. I had a chicken burger with bacon and American cheese. My husband had a plain burger and fries. We had a happy hour milk shake and a pint of lager for £4 each with a side of extra bbq sauce. Apparently this is the new menu that started today they asked for our feedback gotta say it was really good value and tasty food! The staff were so lo... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What

oliviamU6217HY doesn't like about Gbk:

GBK used to be my favourite place in town to get a burger but unfortunately I won't be returning after my most recent visit. The burger ordered was medium rare, this was overdone. The baconnaise tasted absolutely awful, it tasted like chemicals and was quite acidic. Onion rings were so chewy I actually spat it out. Staff didn't come over once to check on our meal. Sat at the table afterwards for 15 mins after eating... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: Gbk in Liverpool traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, and you can try tasty American menus like Burger or Barbecue. If you want to have breakfast, a hearty brunch awaits you, You'll find tasty South American dishes also on the menu.
