Went with my friends to try it out as it was close by. Its a decent place to eat but the price is quite a bit for the portions that you get. The burger tasted good and the wedges was good but the portions wasn't to the standard especially the wings as it was £3ish for only two piece wings and it was really really tangy, and it killed of the chicken taste. Overall it was a good place to eat with friends. The interior... read more.
