We were on staycation in Bath for a few days and came here often for food. Staff were friendly and welcoming.

Our order arrived fairly quickly, even at the busiest of times. Food was hot and order was right. Toilets were clean and smell free...(which can't be said for every McDonald's store) social distancing was in place as was track and trace. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about McDonald's:

there was a sting tonight as family with a speculative necessity child among 10yrs we were happy sitting outside letting her and my water eating there dinner and two of her colleagues came out of being rude and agrees when we all need her...learning and we cannot move inside read more.
