ough finds

They have been providing hot meals to us since the start of the first lockdown donating 500 meals in total so far.

I have delivered these meals to families in our community, residents in care homes, families in refuge & homeless accommodation & staff working on the non-urgent site at Applin.

Last night the meals were provided to our local community centre accommodation giving every parent, child & staff a healthy & hot meal, clearly people in the community & staff on the vaccine site will be happy to receive meals for lunch today.

Desii opens its doors again on May 17th, if you're thinking of going out for a meal please show Desii your support so they fully deserve it! 🙏
