We came upon The Real Fish and Chips Company by accident, but a great find. Having been painting and decorating all day, it was late, tired, hungry and on our way back to our B, expecting to come across a McDonalds, my husband and I saw the shop as we were stopped at lights. It was due to close but they took our order with a smile. We both had the haddock and chips which were absolutely delicious, home made tartare s... read more. What User doesn't like about The Real Fish Chips Company:

Our order was two hours late, and when it finally arrived was lacking one of the items. Initially they offered a free bottle of coke for the delay, and once the item was missing from our order, they initially offered a full refund which was fair. Half an hour later they called back to say they were only refunding the missing item. So unprofessional and inexcusable lateness. Would not order from here again, I have neve... read more.
