We had the vegetarian kofta and muttar paneer. Great food. Excellent sauces for both, really top notch. The kofta balls however were hollow, overcooked and heavy going to eat (just solid dessicated coconut really). The rice, to be picky, is more Uncle Ben's than quality pilau. Interior is really well done with a great row of booths, cosy luxurious décor. One thing though, when I pointed out the kofta problems (I left... read more. What Ag doesn't like about Maharaja:

Honestly, I couldn't figure out how they have such a high rating. The service is okay, but the portions are disappointing considering the price, specially when you compare it to other Indian restaurants in Helsinki. Also the 'naan' was sweet, and there weren't enough pieces of chicken in the chicken curry. read more.
